

ProSep CEO Jacques L. Drouin Receives Industry Recognition - Nominated to Oilweek Magazine's 2009 Rising Star -

MONTREAL, QUEBEC – April 29, 2009 - ProSep Inc. (TSX: PRP), a provider of process equipment to the oil and gas industry, was pleased to announce today that Jacques L. Drouin, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, has been named a Rising Star by Oilweek Magazine, profiling the industry's future leaders.

"Our 2009 Rising Stars are all successful in their respective corporate environments, either as entrepreneurs or scientists or innovators," Oilweek editor Dale Lunan says. "But it takes more than that to be a Rising Star—they are also giving back to their communities, whether by mentoring university students, directing major fundraising efforts, or helping new Canadians develop the skills they need to get and keep jobs here in Canada."

"We're thrilled to induct our second class of Rising Stars," said Oilweek publisher Agnes Zalewski. "These are the individuals that will shape the future of the industry."

Jacques first joined ProSep in 2003 as Chief Financial Officer. In November 2007, he was nominated as President and CEO to lead the Company's new strategic plan. Prior to joining ProSep, Jacques was Vice President and Director of Deloitte & Touche Finance Canada Inc., where he undertook and managed numerous financing and merger & acquisition transactions for public as well as private companies. Jacques also worked as a corporate finance senior consultant at KPMG and at Nesbitt Thomson (now BMO Nesbitt Burns) as a financial analyst in the investment-banking department. He holds a Bachelor of Commerce and a Master's Degree in Management Science, both specialized in finance.
